BOOKS

Childhood Cancer: A Handbook from St. Jude Children's Research Hospital

By Grant Steen, PhD and Joseph Mirro, MD

This is a compassionate guide about childhood cancer. It includes diagnosing, treating and surviving childhood cancer. It answers parents questions such as what tests can we expect during diagnosis? What are the best known treatment options? What are the side effects my child is likely to experience from treatment? Along with many more answers to other questions.

(Available at the Saratoga Library)

Every Day Counts: Lessons in love, faith, and resilience from children facing illness

By Maria Sirois, Psy. D.

This book is written by a pediatric surgeon who shares what the children she worked with taught her through their life experiences. She admired how the children were able to adapt to whatever illness they were facing. She states "Having an open heart allows hope and joyfulness to coexist with pain and crisis." She wants to share the lessons that these ill children can bring. (Available at the Saratoga Library)

I'm a Kid Living With Cancer
